The total number registered for the presidential primaries is 2914, with The Indians stipped the rancher of the outside precincts, Hanlon, Picacho to be heard from, which will add about 220 names, making the total 3124. This is estimated to be probably more than half the registration that will be made for the November election. With the women eligible to vote the list of the names this year will run close to the 6,000 mark.

Based on the fact that Col. Roosevelt has always carried a large proportion of the democratic vote, and the parties being two to one, will no doubt give Roosevelt three-fourths of the popular vote, and possibly earn for Imperial county the banner as the largest Roosevelt county in the state which will be in perfect keeping with the record of Imperial county as the banner county in almost everything else, and by big odds, when it comes to bumper crops

In this month's primaries only those registered as republicans or democrats may vote.
